The Retreat

Down Hall Country House Hotel, Matching Road, Hatfield Heath, Essex, CM22 7AS

Imagine that you are the author of your own life story. You have the power to choose the characters, the plot, and the ending. How will you write your story?

The Author's Life Theory is a powerful way to think about your life and create the one you want to live. By understanding that you are the author of your own story, you can take control of your choices and start writing the life you deserve.

Here are some key principles of the Author's Life Theory:

You are responsible for your own happiness. You can't control everything that happens to you, but you can control how you react to it. Choose to be positive and focus on the things you can control.

You have the power to choose. What are your goals and dreams? What kind of life do you want to live? Make choices that are aligned with your values and desires.

You are creating your own story every day. Every decision you make, every action you take, shapes the direction of your life. Be intentional about the choices you make and the life you want to create.

Our 2-day retreat will guide you to take the steps you need, with engaging exercises, encounters with nature, unlocked creativity, deep reflection, and the support of a sisterhood of women.

We believe it's important to be in beautiful and inspiring surroundings to get the most out of the retreat. Being in the same old environment creates the same thinking and the same results. Taking yourself out of that creates the opportunity for new thinking, creativity, and unlocking your deep knowing.

We've chosen Down Hall Country House Hotel, surrounded by enchanting grounds with aged trees, secret gardens, and lush greenery—the perfect space for reflection. The hotel facilities and grounds are the perfect place to focus, relax, and rediscover yourself with like-minded people.

The rooms are spacious, comfortable, and quiet. The bathrooms are spacious, so you can take a long soak or spend some extra time preening in front of the mirror. There's also a sauna and a steam room that you can access free of charge, with time built into day 2 of the retreat to do so. You can release those aching muscles, knead those knots in your shoulders, and cleanse your skin and soul.

The food and drinks are truly scrumptious—three-course meals that are a feast for the eyes as well as the tongue. Space is designed into the weekend to relax and recharge, whether that be over delicious meals or meditative walks through the grounds.

Precious time without the usual demands of life means that women can prioritize themselves for a change—which is really appreciated and much needed.

Why a retreat and not a workshop?

Workshops are great, but they can be fleeting. You cram a lot of information and activity into a short period of time, and then you go back to your everyday life. It can be difficult to sustain the inspiration and momentum that you gained during the workshop.

A retreat is different. It gives you the time and space you need to fully integrate what you learn and to create a plan for moving forward. It also allows you to build relationships with other women who are on the same journey, and to create a support system that will help you stay on track.

If you are serious about creating the life you want to live, then a retreat is the best investment you can make.

You'll gain:

- A fresh perspective. Being in a new environment can help you to see things differently and to open your mind to new possibilities.
- Deep reflection. A retreat gives you the time and space you need to reflect on your life, your goals, and your values.
- Creative inspiration. A retreat can help you to tap into your creativity and to come up with new ideas for how to live your life.
- Supportive community. A retreat gives you the opportunity to connect with other women who are on the same journey as you and to create a support system that will help you stay on track.

Ready to invest in yourself and create the life you want to live? Join us for our retreat and start writing the next chapter of your story.
